

Bad Guy

Tom MacDonald

Kill every enemy 'til they dissipate
Go to war with this nickel plate, leave 'em in a different place
Maybe at the bottom of a little lake
Don't apologize now, it's a little late, wait
Can't help it that I deal with this anger
Aim it at his head, squeeze, that's a no-brainer
What you need a spreadsheet for me to explain it?
You ain't from here, boy, you don't know the language
Let me break it down like a chess game
You a pawn, I'm a king, I'm investing
All my money in protecting everything I own
With a bunch of weapons and bulletproof vests, UVs
I'm a rap god, pass it on to yo friends
I'll baptize anyone wanna get it in
I'm a warrior to the core, I brought a gun
You brought a knife, I brought a sword
They broke the mold with me, my music streams overseas independently
You don't get no views, please don't offend me
I did ten mil in my sleep last week
Go rappin' ass, rapper get cracked in yo cracker
This cracked right here, best white boys rappin'
I'm a legend, ain't no question, I'ma kill it with these words
Ain't no actin', this perfection, step up, get murdered

I've been so damn chill, the homies been on standby
I ain't tryna leave no parties wit' a black eye
Last time shit went down, I swore it was the last time
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
Bad guy, bad guy
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
I've been so damn chill, the homies been on standby
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy

Rap god, rap devil, rap demon
Wrapped in a barbed wire blanket in a mausoleum
I'ma take a gasoline bath while I'm firebreathin'
Kill myself and go to hell to kill the devil, now we're even
Everybody hatin' 'cause I'm great fall back
I'll be swingin' at your face with a baseball bat
When you face those facts and your brains go splat
I'll be passin' on base with a Billboard plaque
I'm the best out, never stressed out
Never sweat clowns, flex now with they chest out
I'ma pull the people out the water who confess they regret how
They talked about me, I guess I'll let the rest drown
Keep usin' my name for your traffic
I get, I'm famous, you're basic, I'm classic
You're jealous, you hate it, you're fake and it's tragic
You make me feel anxious just watching you panic
I'm a super beast, produce the beats, lose the leash
And everybody become food I eat
Catch a battery charge like you're boostin' me
No jumper cables, just boots to teeth, like
Rap God, rap Devil, rap Jesus
Wrapped in a razor blade, chain brain genius
Rap God, rap Devil, rap Pope
Wrap-wrapped in saran wrap-wrap like it's dope

I've been so damn chill, the homies been home standby
I ain't tryna leave no parties wit' a black eye
Last time shit went down, I swore it was the last time
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
Bad guy, bad guy
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
I've been so damn chill, the homies been on standby
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy

You do not want it with me, I'm tryna be cool for the last time
You do not want it with me, only one way it could go
You do not want it with me, you'll turn me back into a bad guy
You do not want it with me, you don't want it with me, I'm a

Bad guy, bad guy
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
I've been so damn chill, the homies been on standby
Please don't push me, I don't wanna be a bad guy
