

Be A Man

Tom MacDonald

Y'all are so confused, y'all don't have vaginas or some boobs
And you still don't know which bathroom you should choose, man
Y'all are so appalled, born with a penis and some balls
And you still don't know which gender you are called, man
Y'all been so emasculated, all your blood and sweat and tears evaporated
Now you're just some beta males convinced that alpha men are Satan
Y'all been brainwashed to call yourselves some gentlemen
I call it how I see it, y'all ain't sensitive you're feminine
Y'all don't have no backbone, your skeletons are gelatin
Your whole life is boo-hoo, your veins are full of estrogen
And I'm as girl power as anyone else
But pro-women slowly became the code name for anti-male
They call it toxic masculinity, we better let the doctor know
Please remove our testicles, they produce testosterone
Amputate my Adam's apple, I feel way too different
I think they'd like me better if I was like all the women, help
"Ah, somebody, help!"

You said, "Be a man", and now it's like that I am
I'm everything you can't stand
'Cause I'm the man, and I can see that you're mad
'Cause you wanna be the man so bad 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all are just embarrassed, if you tried to compare us
You would see that you ain't a man no more 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all were too encouraged, now you don't have the courage
To just show up and be a man no more

Y'all are so upset, mixing up your gender with your sex
'Cause you have a beard and like to wear a dress, man
Y'all are so progressive, identify as Jesus resurrected
When we ask you for some proof you get defensive, man
They say that it's okay to cry, they're teaching boys to get bullied
And we don't teach them to fight, so now they're avoiding it fully You're breeding men who get married, who can't protect or provide
When someone breaks into their crib, they hide behind their wives, man
Wax off all that hair on your chest
Tuck your dick between your legs and picture you with some breasts
You grew a beard and bought some flannel, but you can't build a fence
Y'all the perfect examples of some millennial men
Got no competitive spirit, can't deal with hard work, you fear it
Afraid of manual labour, I swear I can't take y'all serious
Rather pay for a service instead of gaining the experience
Y'all gon' bleed to death if y'all don't put a plug in that period, uh

You said, "Be a man", and now it's like that I am
I'm everything you can't stand
'Cause I'm the man, and I can see that you're mad
'Cause you wanna be the man so bad 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all are just embarrassed, if you tried to compare us
You would see that you ain't a man no more 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all were too encouraged, now you don't have the courage
To just show up and be a man no more 'cause, bitch, I'm the man

Y'all can be whoever you want
I was born to be the man that you aren't
And I ain't tripping if your energy's wrong
Y'all just angry that the enemy's strong

So be a man or y'all can be whoever you want
I was born to be the man that you aren't
Man, I ain't tripping if your energy's wrong
Y'all just angry that the enemy's strong

You said, "Be a man", and now it's like that I am
I'm everything you can't stand
'Cause I'm the man, and I can see that you're mad
'Cause you wanna be the man so bad 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all are just embarrassed, if you tried to compare us
You would see that you ain't a man no more 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
Y'all were too encouraged, now you don't have the courage
To just show up and be a man no more 'cause, bitch, I'm the man
