Cancelled

Tom MacDonald

I can't be canceled, there's no way that you can stop me
I'm fully independent, there's no label who can drop me
Y'all been starting rumors, let me help you with some, yeah:
"I'm a racist, I'm a sexist, I'm in love with Donald Trump"

Y'all can't cancel me, my life is scandal-free
There ain't no sponsors taking losses 'cause the brand is me
My hands are clean, my family and my fans agree
Y'all can't cancel me for facts because you're mad and weak

Go ahead and tell the world I'm ugly and racist
I braid my hair and I don't care about cultural appropriation
I lived in the ghetto, lived in South Central, there's no Caucasians

And still I loved every single one of my neighbors
How's a man say I'm clickbait if he gonna use this face
To get clicks on his page, y'all hypocrites are bitch-made
But I ain't tripping 'bout these bullies, it ain't sixth grade
Go ahead and diss me tryna sell a couple mixtapes

I'm not afraid, take my face and my name, paste it on the front page
I'm already famous and you'll never change it by hating or claiming you'll t ake it away
My grind wicked, write my rhymes different, you could try to quantify the fi ne limits
There's a dying gimmick, can't deny I'm winning, this is pure fire, this ain
't white privilege
I do what I want, get all the Gucci and Louis Vuitton—Outta my closet, outta my crib, I do not want it, that is for kids
That is for rappers who ask you to produce their beats for free, pretending online like they rich
I am not playing it safe, I said what I said, it is what it is

I don't care if you mad at me, okay?
Go ahead and change the channel
Don't waste your time tryna cancel me, okay?
They love me 'cause they know that I'm an asshole
Say what you want, I guess it is what it is
Haters can talk but they can't cancel the kid
Go 'head and go off, try and say this is it
But I swear to God, you can't cancel the kid

Everybody knows my name, from local folks to global fame
I'm vocal 'bout the social justice movements, I expose the fakes
Turn rappers into ghosts in graves, make no mistake, they bones will break
I'll throw them in the wolf enclosure, slowly turn and close the cage Acres full of sheep, you know that I'm the only GOAT, I'm great
They spoke my name to mostly hate, I don't complain, I'm woke, I wait
A total focused soldier, wrote the Art of War, know every page
I'm numb to all the dumbness, smoke tobacco laced with Novocain
I won't behave, I stoke the flames, I'll choke they throats with golden chai ns
Use vocal cords as skipping ropes and jump till I am soaked in brains
From open planes to coastal waves to solar rays in open space
Can't find nobody doper 'less you poke your veins and snort cocaine

Whoa, y'all can't cancel me

Just get mad that I'm the man until you smash the screen
Like whoa, I can handle heat
I walked through hell in open sandals drinking gasoline, yeah

I coulda been a star
Coulda had a mansion and a car
And a Grammy album on the charts
I'm a savage, Randy with the bars
I don't rap 'bout Xanax, goddamn it
Can't cancel facts, we need answers
Championing trash to the masses
Actually massively damages, yuh
Keep tryna cancel me, yuh
I own the masters so, yuh
I make the beats, I write the songs, I own the cameras, yuh
I coulda been famous Dumbed my music down till it's basic
Get it on the hottest Spotify playlist
Modify my catalog and go mainstream, yuh

I don't care if you mad at me, okay?
Go ahead and change the channel
Don't waste your time tryna cancel me, okay?
They love me 'cause they know that I'm an asshole
Say what you want, I guess it is what it is
Haters can talk but they can't cancel the kid
Go 'head and go off, try and say this is it
But I swear to God, you can't cancel the kid

I feel like all these rappers lately on a mission
They starting drama, they don't really want no problems, so they talk in whi spers
Don't even start, no competition, y'all are finished
They say they feeling froggy but I bet none of these frogs gon' ribbit
They think I'm soft but I promise y'all that I'm solid
Like a rock inside a Teflon box and dipped in carbon fiber liquid
I'm not religious but I walk with Christians
If Jesus died for all my sins, he'd need a million crosses tall as buildings

Whoa, y'all can't cancel me
I'm a god and you're the devil, stop attacking me
Like whoa, nails in my hands and feet
Y'all some snakes, I don't need fruit from that apple tree
I ain't doing features or buying beats, I'm a wolf, I don't lie with sheep
I am what I am and I can't hide my teeth
Way too many rumors, I'm like, who said it?
Never met him, if he dissed me, probably 'bout to drop a new record

I do what I want, don't matter if I get approval or not Y'all ain't gonna cyberbully me or try to push on me until I'm becoming some dude who I'm not Head full of ludicrous thoughts, producing the songs, my music is truth and you brutally shocked
I'm shooting my shot, I'm Biggie, I'm Shady, I'm new school 'Pac Go ahead and call me a piece of garbage, make a starving artist your primary target
I'm the largest monster in the farthest darkness, now my claws are sharpened
, I'm an army sergeant
If people wanna hate then I'm grateful, it's only gonna make what I say less painful
Look at my face, embrace I'm unstable, I ain't gonna break or shake or feel shameful

I don't care if you mad at me, okay?
Go ahead and change the channel
Don't waste your time tryna cancel me, okay?
They love me 'cause they know that I'm an asshole
Say what you want, I guess it is what it is
Haters can talk but they can't cancel the kid
Go 'head and go off, try and say this is it
But I swear to God, you can't cancel the kid
