

Danger

Tom MacDonald

Y'all just run and hide from lightning, we got thunder in our bones
Y'all gon' need a huntin' license, how y'all shootin' at these GOATs?
I get why they hate us, why?
We famous, rich and dope
Came from nothin', now the two of us the greatest ever known
We came from the bottom with nothin' but both of our middle fingers and a plan
We did the impossible, homie, you can't 'cause we're made of legends and you are a man
Where's all the industry people who said we were trash, I'll choke 'em to death with my hands
Screw the whole industry, I want revenge
Light 'em on fire, the labels are dead
I never should've made it, I'm made for this though
And everybody hatin', I'll pray for your soul
We are not afraid, we came for the smoke
It don't matter what you say, you ain't safe in these zones
I'm sorry that your mama raised a hater
Now every time we pull up they're like
"I sense danger"

I'm comin' for blood
Y'all better run
Don't care where you're from
I'll hit you to dust
Your body contorted and stuffed in the trunk
Call it an abortions
For all of my sons
I got the juice, I got the sauce
I'll throw a brick, I'm cuttin' the locks
Google the route, park in the lawn
Y'all better run from Nova and Tom

You can go ahead and hate me now
It ain't ever gonna break me down
There ain't no escaping now
You ain't bad enough to take me out
You are in danger, danger, danger (Somebody help)
You are in danger, danger, danger

It ain't rocket science, haters, we just have it and you don't Lamborghini Huracan, four million dollar home
Stop looking at my Instagram, you can't leave us alone
Get a job, get a life, this is ours, get your own
I don't keep hate in my heart, I would never let y'all in to break me apart
I'mma chain you to weights in a grave in my yard and remind you I pray he's afraid of the dark
I got names in my brain and the makes of their cars
Their location is saved so I know where they are
Come and say to my face what you said from afar
No one is safe, better ring the alarm
You're never gonna get it though, remember us forever
You ain't ever gonna be who we become from the pressure
You're never gonna get it, you better go get a medic
I ain't ever gonna rest till I'm dead or get arrested
I'm sorry that your mama raised a hater
Now every time we pull up they like

I sense danger

I'm comin' for blood
I'm comin' for them
I'm comin' for everybody with a head
I'm comin' for y'all
I come and collect
I come for it all
I came for the rest
I got the juice, I got the sauce
I'll throw a brick, I'm cuttin' the locks
Google the route, park in the lawn
Y'all better run from Nova and Tom

You can go ahead and hate me now
It ain't ever gonna break me down
There ain't no escapin' now
You ain't bad enough to take me out
You are in danger, danger, danger (Somebody help)
You are in danger, danger, danger

The Father, Son, the Holy Spirit, even Christ himself
No officer, no 911, there's no one who can help
Standin' in the mirror, tryna summon someone else
Tell me how it feels to have to look back at yourself
I'm sick of hearin', "Success is the best revenge"
Want a million different selfies with my haters' severed heads
Want the last thing that they hear to be their name outta my mouth
And the last thing that they see to be my feet up on their couch

You can go ahead and hate me now
It ain't ever gonna break me down
There ain't no escapin' now
You ain't bad enough to take me out
You are in danger, danger, danger (Somebody help)
You are in danger, danger, danger
