

Hide A Body

Tom MacDonald

Would you talk me out of jumping off a bridge?
Would you come if I had to leave town?
Would you promise even if we're never rich
You have everything you ever need now?
Would you talk me out of the edge of the cliff?
Would you pick me up if I fell down?
I hate to ask, but it is what it is
And I really need some answers right now

'Cause I'd hide a body for ya
I'd drag a man 20 miles into the woods
Babygirl, I adore ya
I'd kill a man, I swear to god, darlin' I would
I hope I'm not alone, 'cause you feel like home
And outside is so scary and dark
And I need to know if I am your home
Before I bury bodies in our yard

Would you pull me out of laying in a ditch?
Would you help me put the bottle down?
Would you promise that we're never gonna split when the hard time's comin' a round
Would you try to give me reasons to live?
Would you carry me if I give out?
I hate to ask, but it is what it is
And I really need some answers right now

'Cause I'd hide a body for ya
I'd drag a man 20 miles into the woods
Babygirl, I adore ya
I'd kill a man, I swear to god, darlin' I would
I hope I'm not alone, 'cause you feel like home
And outside is so scary and dark
And I need to know if I am your home
Before I bury bodies in our yard

'Cause I'd find the spot, and dig the hole
I'd point the gun and shoot
'Cause a 6 foot grave isn't even close to how deep I'm in love with you
And I'd lie to cops, and hide the bones
So nobody finds the truth
'Cause a 6 foot grave isn't even close to how deep I'm in love with you

'Cause I'd hide a body for ya
I'd drag a man 20 miles into the woods
Babygirl, I adore ya
I'd kill a man, I swear to god, darlin' I would
I hope I'm not alone, 'cause you feel like home
And outside is so scary and dark
And I need to know if I am your home
Before I bury bodies in our yard
