

Hulk Hogan

Tom MacDonald

Trust me, man, I get it
Break yo' back and get no credit
You screwed up and don't regret it
Came too far, you're too hard-headed
Beat you down, don't need no medic
They talk trash, don't care who said it
Man, there's levels to this shit
And they gon' hate you when you exit
So wipe that sweat and dry those tears
You ain't survived to die right here
The light is dim but good guys win
When they decide to fight they fears
You do what you want to, ayy
Hate will always haunt you, ayy
If you keep on and you be strong
They will never stop you, ayy
Keep it movin' 'cause they'll all keep shootin'
They got tanks and bombs and rockets
'Long as you keep goin' they gon' keep reloadin'
'Cause they love a movin' target
This a hope and a dream and a prayer right here
This against all odds, it ain't fair right here
This is out of gas, but I ain't stayin' here
You don't want it with me, stay clear

Brother, I'm goin'
On the road, Hulk Hogan
If all I get's a moment
I'll make sure it's an explosion
'Cause lately I've been seein' stars
Tryna kick out of this chokehold
But it's no holds barred
Middle fingers like I'm stonecold

Trust me, man, I feel it
Got some scars but they're all healin'
If there's air, we keep on breathin'
Nightmares happen, keep on dreamin'
We been beaten by our demons
Worked all weekend, live for weekends
Built our team with steel beams
But even metal seems to weaken
So break that rust, have faith in us
Can't be scared, our graves are dug
A storm is only waves and rain
We'll take the pain, we're brave enough
And we'll get what we wanted, ayy
Won't proceed with caution, ayy
We'll win the war like we did before
Failure's not an option
We keep it cool while we're in the fire
We won't ever let 'em burn us
Bring the gasoline and a hundred lighters
The temperature gon' turn up
This a hope and a prayer and a dream right now
This is us and them, you and me right now
There ain't anywhere I'd rather be right now

And I ain't afraid if I bleed right now

Brother, I'm goin'
On the road, Hulk Hogan
If all I get's a moment
I'll make sure it's an explosion
'Cause lately I've been seein' stars
Tryna kick out of this chokehold
But it's no holds barred
Middle fingers like I'm stonecold

I'll do what I gotta do
I ain't scared to break the rules
Just do what I gotta do
And I'm not afraid to lose

Brother, I'm goin'
On the road, Hulk Hogan
If all I get's a moment
I'll make sure it's an explosion
'Cause lately I've been seein' stars
Tryna kick out of this chokehold
But it's no holds barred
Middle fingers like I'm stonecold
