

Hypocrites

Tom MacDonald

(Yeah)

Let me explain this
Most of the people who call you a racist are racist They're pretendin' to care so that they can have somethin' to tweet about, t ryna get likes on they pages
They don't give a damn 'bout a different man if his skin is black
They tryna look cool on the Internet
Tryna get some follows on they Instagrams
Most of these people just lie, claimin' they fighting for women's rights
And they're favorite song's by a rapper referring to women as hoes, like, ei ghty-five times
Too many people say "Screw the system"
Then they turn on the news and they choose to listen
If you hate the man, why you shake his hand?
Why you act like the media's truth and facts?
Most of these people are faking
Clamin' that rappers have ruined a whole generation
Claim it's a message and say that they hate it
Then spend their whole weekend on drugs getting wasted (True)
Most of these people are weak
Claimin' they're shepherds, but they really sheep (Facts)
Most of these people don't stand on their feet
But they claim that they do while they live on their knees

Y'all don't keep it real, dawg, that ain't how you feel, dawg
You the type who's screamin' "Fuck the police" but you call them when you ne ed some
Y'all been lyin' through your teeth, sayin' things you don't believe
Wanna hear yourself speak
You don't keep it a milli, dawg, that ain't how you feelin', dawg Claimin' you're politically correct 'cause you're ashamed of who you really are
Y'all don't practice what you preach, well then, take it to the streets
Claim you bad but that's a reach

Let me explain this
Most of the people who hate on Caucasians are also Caucasian They're ashamed of their skin and embarrassed, they're scared and afraid tha t they're racist
They really really wanna be less white
So they scrub with soap and water every night
But they can't get it off and they cannot erase it
All they can do is announce that they hate it
Most of these people are wack, tryna convince us their feelings are facts
They support the gays, buy a rainbow flag
But in private they still callin' gay people fags
Same people tryna cancel everything
Fighting for good with their negative energy
Claimin' the term "patriotic" is often synonymous with white supremacy
"Be less white, be less black, be less rich, be less fat Be less female, grow a penis, and then be less of a man" (What?)
Be less nice, be less poor, empower women doing porn
Be less you and be like them so they can all accept you more, yeah

Y'all don't keep it real, dawg, that ain't how you feel, dawg
You the type who's screamin' "Fuck the police" but you call them when you ne

ed some

Y'all been lyin' through your teeth, sayin' things you don't believe

Wanna hear yourself speak

You don't keep it a milli, dawg, that ain't how you feelin', dawg

Claimin' you're politically correct 'cause you're ashamed of who you really are

Y'all don't practice what you preach, well then, take it to the streets

Claim you bad but that's a reach

Hypocrites, y'all are only liberal when there's witnesses

When you're home alone you're as conservative as it can get

Hypocrites, when you're out in public you're so sensitive

Second that you're home alone, your character has differences

Listen, kid, don't care who your favorite politician is

Don't matter if you're left or right, what matters is consistency

Be honest with yourself, 'cause honestly, I think we're sick of it

You are only tolerant when someone else is listening

Y'all don't keep it real, dawg, that ain't how you feel, dawg

You the type who's screamin' "Fuck the police" but you call them when you need some

Y'all been lyin' through your teeth, sayin' things you don't believe

Wanna hear yourself speak

You don't keep it a milli, dawg, that ain't how you feelin', dawg

Y'all don't practice what you preach, well then, take it to the streets

Claim you bad but that's a reach
