

Intro

Tom MacDonald

Uh, um, it's been a long road
How does it feel to have such an instantly recognizable sound
A real spirit to your music
How would you personally define that and have you got one kinda memory
Or one experience that really sums that up

I have this occurring nightmare

Um, I don't really know man
Uh, it's weird that people would say that the music has spirit Because, honestly to me Bad Dream Mad Again was always somethin g, it was about the exact opposite
It was about the lack thereof, no spirit
Your spirit's out of love
