

You can't leave me here, right now I need you the most
I hope you don't forget how to follow me home
I have a million fans; without you, I feel alone
If you don't make it through, just know I believe in ghosts

But you already know that, know that
I'll always be your old man, old man
Even if you can't remember all the times we had
And you'll always be my big man, big man
I'll always be your wingman, wingman
Even if you can't remember how we used to be

And it don't feel like real life, real life
I don't know what to feel like, feel like, ay
I look into your eyes, you know it's me
I was stronger than a steel pipe, a steel pipe
If you need strength, you can steal mine, steal mine, ay
You can't remember me if you forget to breathe

And you can't leave me here, right now I need you the most
I hope you don't forget how to follow me home
I have a million fans; without you, I'm so alone, fuck
If you don't make it through, just know I believe in ghosts

You gon' always be my baby 'til you walk through walls
Even when your name gets called
No way to see you now
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
You gon' always be my baby 'til you walk through walls
Even when your name gets called
No way to see you now
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
