Do you know what a dream is?

Yes

Can you explain it?

Yeah, a dream's like, you're in bed, a dream's like, a dream's almost like when you're thinking but they're kind of different things

If you wanted to ask a question about a dream, anything about dreams what kind of question would you ask?

I would ask a dream, my question would be, which dream do you like the best?

We picked a funny time to run away

You picked a funny time to leave me here on my own

I let you in my home, I'm gone

Let's take it back, you were never one of my real friends

I let you in and you left me out in the cold, now I'm cold (I'm cold) And I'm coming back
