

Shit Was Fuckin' Cool

Tom MacDonald

Just a kid from the 90s had a fake ID
Comic books and trading cards
Homie's in the trailer park
Stole their moms cigarettes
Smoke 'em with the bigger kids
Way before the Internet
That shit was fucking cool

Found a six pack and a playboy at the skate park
Freddie Prince Jr. taught us to break hearts
Treated every Honda Civic like a race car
Knew it was time to go when all the street lights came on Watching wrestling with the gang
Every wallet had a chain
MTV was like "okay"
And grew up quickly before I aged
Ooh, in the basement with the black lights
In the graveyard with the flashlight
Bunch a teenagers with a hash pipe

Cold beer, no fear, no tears, whoa
"No surrender" on the T-shirt, whoa
No stress, no sweat, no rest, whoa
Watch the world from the bleachers

Just a kid from the 90s had a fake ID
Comic books and trading cards
Homie's in the trailer park
Stole their moms cigarettes
Smoke 'em with the bigger kids
Way before the Internet
That shit was fucking cool

Back when weed was illegal we had the best smoke
Had to link with people without a cell phone
It was either or hell yeah or it was hell no
We had Tupac or Nirvana in our head phones
We were stealing from the mall
Wanted to be Tony Hawk, hundred posters on the wall
Did graffiti in the stalls
Uh, fell asleep on a friend's lawn, bag a weed in my left sock
Never dreaming of a desk job

Cold beer, no fear, no tears, whoa
"No surrender" on the T-shirt, whoa
No stress, no sweat, no rest, whoa
Watch the world from the bleachers

Just a kid from the 90s had a fake ID
Comic books and trading cards
Homie's in the trailer park
Stole their moms cigarettes
Smoke 'em with the bigger kids
Way before the Internet
That shit was fucking cool

Just a kid from the 90s had a fake ID

Comic books and trading cards
Homie's in the trailer park
Stole their moms cigarettes
Smoke 'em with the bigger kids
Way before the Internet
That shit was fucking cool