

Skit I

Tom MacDonald

Clean enough brains

[?], that one

Clean enough brains

Chopping off hands

Clean enough brains

Cutting off arms

Dude

What?

Stop sweeping the shell casings through the blood puddles, you're just smearing brains and blood everywhere

Bro, I know what the fuck I'm doing, man, this is my first rodeo, pass me [?] those towels right there and cut, start cutting that rug

You know I-I-I would start cutting that rug, but somebody lost every single fucking knife in the house

Who? Me?

When we ran outta ammo and a gunfight turned into a sword fight

What's this?

So if I had a knife

What's this?

[?] if I had anything, I'd start cutting that fucking rug

Does this not look like fucking knife?

No, Maddie, that doesn't look like a fucking knife, that looks like a fucking spatula. So unless you're gonna start prying people's eyeballs outta their head, flipping 'em around the fucking room, that's not gonna cut the carpet

Listen, man. This is a fucking... Why do I have a spatula?
