

Ugly

Tom MacDonald

You say you feel ugly, but you're beautiful to me
Every bump and scar is the prettiest I see
And the bags under your eyes are 'cause you're tired of loving me
Get some rest 'cause you look gorgeous when you sleep

I wish you saw what I do
The mirror's been telling you lies
I ain't seen something quite as nice that didn't have 4 wheel drive
I wish saw what I do
Swear I'd tear out my eyes
If I met, you could look at yourself across the bar on a Friday night

I don't know who's telling you lies
But Y O U ain't U G L Y
And I don't know what got in your mind
But Y O U ain't U G L Y Y Y

Girl, you're gorgeous from the morning 'til the time you go to sleep
If anybody here is ugly, babe, it's me

You say you ain't as pretty as the girls you see online
You're brilliant, but you must be out your mind
And the wrinkles on your face don't make you old, they make you wise
And I'll love you even more as time goes by

I wish you saw what I do
Yourself is telling you lies
I ain't seen something quite as nice that didn't have 4 wheel drive
Sit Taylor Swift beside you
All dressed up to the nights
And I'd still pick you, my dear if I had the choice every single time

I don't know who's telling you lies
But Y O U ain't U G L Y
And I don't know what got in your mind
But Y O U ain't U G L Y Y Y

Girl, you're gorgeous from the morning 'til the time you go to sleep
If anybody here is ugly, babe, it's me

'Cause Y O U ain't U G L Y
And I L O V E U and I

I don't know who's telling you lies
But Y O U ain't U G L Y
And I don't know what got in your mind
But Y O U ain't U G L Y Y Y
