

Underdogs

Tom MacDonald

They tried to tell us that we never mattered
We weren't meant for much for anything at all
They made us feel like we were disadvantaged
Told to watch our language anytime we talked
We got pushed around until we're hard to manage
Told to learn some manners and to grow some balls
They probably thought we were way to damaged to be champions
We're the underdogs
We're the ones who the world don't like
Fought with the system like our whole lives
Never fit in with them middle fingers flipping
Shoulda been in prison twenty-five to life
We're the ones in the dark with the light
Always been the rebels who are down for a fight
The kids who didn't listen built a little different
Been the opposition trying to do us right
Were the ones who were picked on
Doing kicks flips, getting lit, dreams, ripped jeans and a lip balm
Renegades like a wrench in the system
Misfits and we pissed off

Yeah, we've been warned since we were born
That we would fail if we didn't conform
But we stayed ourselves and we gave 'em hell
And the underdogs won the war

We weren't the cool kids whatever screw y'all forever
Y'all were wrong (y'all were wrong)
So we're losers whatever you will remember underdogs (underdogs)
And we might be losers, but losers can win
They might have more shooters, but it's us versus them
And we're the underdogs (underdogs)
We're the underdogs (underdogs)

They tried to tell us we weren't good enough
To be the leaders they said we would fall
They did their best to try and tear us down
And make our generation feel small
We gotten beaten up they dragged us through the mud
Like we're the garbage that nobody wants
They probably thought that we would never win
But they were wrong
We the underdogs
We're the ones that the whole world hates
Fight for the people 'til both arms break
Screw the politician's and the cops permission
We can't do what's right just if the laws don't break
We're the lone wolves ain't no cage
Won't go home 'til hell's been raised
Screw the institutions we the revolution
Got an attitude and got a world to save
We're the ones who were laughed at
Had a backwards hat, mad magazine crammed in our backpack
Smoke weed, fourteen, playing Pacman
Now we actually Batman

Yeah, we've been warned since we were born

That we would fail if we didn't conform
But we stayed ourselves and we gave 'em hell
And the underdogs won the war

We weren't the cool kids whatever screw y'all forever
Y'all were wrong (y'all were wrong)
So we're losers whatever you will remember underdogs (underdogs)
And we might be losers, but losers can win
They might have more shooters, but it's us versus them
And we're the underdogs (underdogs)
We're the underdogs (underdogs)

We weren't the cool kids
Too busy losing
Up against the odds again
We'll be the revolution
And rise out the ruin
The underdogs will win
We weren't the cool kids
Too busy losing
Up against the odds again
We'll be the revolution
And rise out the ruin
The underdogs will win

We weren't the cool kids whatever screw y'all forever
Y'all were wrong (y'all were wrong)
So we're losers whatever you will remember underdogs (underdogs)
And we might be losers, but losers can win
They might have more shooters, but it's us versus them
And we're the underdogs (underdogs)
We're the underdogs (underdogs)
