

You Can Watch

Tom MacDonald

Too many eyes on us, I wish that they would just stop and look away, now
We have to do some things Instagram probably doesn't need to see
But y'all can watch if you want to
I mean after all we chose this
And y'all can talk if you want to, but keep it down, we're tryna hit these poses
And it's crazy, walking on these roses wearing daisies
Had some crazy shit go down at home but we're still on these stages
And I know that these Tylenol and Ray Ban's won't show that we still faded from the weekend
But y'all can watch, ooh ooh kiddo

We will follow our hearts as long as we have some
Up on stage, or caught on camera
We're staying true to ourselves, it's not a campaign
This isn't politicking to us, nor is it trendy shit that we saw
We woke up like this every morning since we could breathe
We just some real artists on drugs who will not change but dress us up
We got some paintings up on our walls that were done by some other artists on drugs
Too many people think that what we are doing is simple, Hey
Too many people are running to get in the picture, Hey
Too many people are acting and never have had an audition
Too many maybes and all a girl needs is a purse and a love and a little commitment

I'm faded, baptized in lean
Criticized by men who think fashion should make you weak
And we just swagging
Y'all are tripping, we just smoking
'Cause all the real artists having drinks in my apartment
Y'all ain't with us but we ain't lonely
Everybody can watch yeah, everybody can watch

Too many eyes on us, I wish that they would just stop and look away, now
We have to do some things Instagram probably doesn't need to see, hey
But y'all can watch if you want to, hey
I mean after all we chose this, hey
And y'all can talk if you want to, hey
But keep it down, we're tryna hit these poses
And it's crazy, walking on these roses wearing daisies
Had some crazy shit go down at home but we're still on these stages
And I know that these Tylenol and Ray Ban's won't show that we still faded from the weekend
But y'all can watch, ooh ooh kiddo

If the devil is in the details then y'all are just my focus
You need to see it from a distance and avoid those who go closest Diablos is what I'm tryna see the city in
I feel like we could really make it happen if we get it in this year
And this year they can watch me while I'm popping
I won't even start the show until all of their eyes are on me
And I love it, even though I play the humble card in public I been on these fucking stages since Velcro shoes from my mother. Aye

Dress me up, when I'm coming down
Like me, advising 'cause these lights are bright and they're talking loud

But I'll be quiet, so you can paint my mouth
This was all I ever wanted, look at me now

Too many eyes on us, I wish that they would just stop and look away, now
We have to do some things Instagram probably doesn't need to see
And y'all can watch if you want to
I mean after all we chose this
