

You Missed

Tom MacDonald

They burnin' the country down with their progressiveness
It started with changing what gender is Then graduated to you're racist if you think that your life matters and your skin don't have melanin
They don't want peace, they want skeletons
They want men to pretend that they're feminine They don't want an election, they got so offended by freedom that they just tried killin' the president I used to think that the woke were misguided, but now I can see that they're evil
Twitter is angry that Trump isn't dead, you know who got shot? Innocent peop le Thought y'all were tolerant? Thought we were equals? I thought you valued ho w everyone feels?
Then why are y'all celebrating an attempted assassination like you're part o f Antifa?

Thank God the left can't aim
Thank God the right don't riot
Welcome to the home of the brave
Freedom ain't afraid of violence
You wish he was dying

Bitch you missed
Thank God the left can't aim
Why can't we just shoot straight?
Y'all are goin insane
Bitch you missed
There's no one else you can blame
Tried to lock him up in a cage
Now you tryna kill what you hate
Bitch you missed

Told us trust the science, but it never made sense to me
Why would we put all our trust in the enemy?
Millions of people are hooked on amphetamines, they're making billions on un tested remedies
Borders are open to people with felonies, Biden can't stop 'em, he don't hav e the energy
Y'all wanna kill the man trying to fight for a better tomorrow by making him Kennedy?
I tried to give y'all a chance, like "maybe the left isn't nuts", I was wron g
'Cause y'all are exactly as crazy as every conservative person I know said y ou were all along Wanna protest? Go hard
Wanna burn flags? Go off
But y'all are so triggered that you're pulling triggers at presidents, y'all the terrorists when you're armed

Thank God the left can't aim
Thank God the right don't riot
Welcome to the home of the brave
Freedom ain't afraid of violence
You wish he was dying

Bitch you missed

Why can't we just shoot straight?
Y'all are goin insane
Bitch you missed
There's no one else you can blame
