

Wake Up This Day

Tom Misch

It don't wait for me to cast away
The feelings of poor taste
Knowing that, I'm channeling my few and hasty lovers
Loving in me grows older
Through its style and grace
Never floated off to find some real escape

Today, saying it right away
Going for the eternal flame
I'ma do whatever it takes
Oh today, saying it right away
Going for the eternal flame
I'ma do whatever it takes
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...

I'ma do whatever it takes, yeah

Said that I'm gonna
No...

When I woke up this day
There was no one around
Telling me what I say
The energy is profound
And I woke up that day
Put my feet on the ground
Telling me what I say
The energy is profound

Today, saying it right away
Going for the eternal flame
I'ma do whatever it takes, o-oh...
Today, saying it right away
Going for the eternal flame
I'ma do whatever it takes
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
Takes...
