Tom Odell

Here I go again
Wasting all my days away
It's a funny thing how some things never seem to change
Twenty-seven years of age
Head spin like a satellite
If you thought I was gonna behave tonight
You're wrong

I'm drunk and I'm a mess
Dressed up like it's Halloween
Dancing alone to "Billy Jean"
Praying that somebody takes me home
Praying that tonight I won't have to sleep alone
With your answering phone

Here I go again
Wasting all my money, babe
It's a funny thing how some things never seem to change
I'm sick of all this cheap cocaine
I ain't got no appetite
If you thought I was going to behave tonight
You're wrong

I don't wanna be a star
Famous on the party scene
Dancing alone to "Billy Jean"
Praying that somebody takes me home
Praying that, tonight, I won't have to sleep alone
With your answering phone
