lockdown

Tom Odell

Living in the lockdown, dreaming of the top down
Driving to my hometown, fuck I gotta cough now
Am I gonna die mum? Surely I am too young
Shoulda had more fun, shoulda had a never had a worry

At all, call my grandma back when, she called
Thought that music could make me whole
But I really know now, yes I know

Living in the lockdown, dreaming of the top down
Pulling all my socks down, fuck I gotta cough now
Am I gonna die mum? Surely I am too young
Shoulda had more fun, shoulda never really had a worry

At all, for my grandma back then, she called
Thought that music could make me whole
But I really know now, yes I know, I know, I know
