

The End

Tom Odell

I was 20 days clean yesterday
I'll get a key ring if I make it through to May
Can we talk? Is that okay?
If you've got time, I know a place

A rose garden in the north side of the park
They shut the gates about an hour after dark
We could walk there, we can laugh
Ain't it funny how owners look like their dogs

Oh, I'll claw back my confidence
You'll say, "Do you think we can be friends?"
Or maybe we have reached The End
Or maybe we have reached The End

Do you remember when Taylor Hawkins died?
Did you see his son playing the drums live?
It made me sad, did it make you cry?
I thought of you, I don't know why

Oh, give me back my oxygen
You'll say, "Do you think we can be friends?"
Or maybe we have reached The End
Or maybe we have reached The End
