

Runaway

Tom Paxton

Oh no no no
I don't want to runaway
Forever's just a long long way to
Go oh oh oh
I'm sick of planning everything
Reality is just a daydream
A daydream don't let go

You got your questions you don't like my answers
I talk in circles cause I can't get straight
I do resemble what I can't remember
I do remember cause it just can't wait

You know they say if it ain't broke, don't fix it
I know you think it's just a cool cliché
I know you always think you know what always I'm thinking
I think you're always wrong but honey that's ok

Oh no no no
Oh no no no
I don't want to runaway
Forever's just a long long way to
Go oh oh oh
I'm sick of planning everything
Reality is just a daydream
A daydream don't let go

I know it's real because I'm up here dancing
Feeling free is such a beautiful thing
Hope they never ever stop that music
Cause it's enough to make a grown man sing

Oh no no no
Oh no no no
I don't want to runaway
Forever's just a long long way to
Go oh oh oh
I'm sick of planning everything
Reality is just a daydream

What if it's too good
Too good to be true
I will make it good
Good enough for you

What if it's too good
Too good to be true
I will make it good
Good enough for you

What if it's too good
Too good to be true

Oh no no no

Oh no no no
Go oh oh oh
I'm sick of planning everything

Oh no no no
Oh oh oh
I'm sick of planning everything
