

Forgotten Man

Tom Petty

Well I feel like a forgotten man
I understand the dark when it hangs upon the water when the wolves and dogs all bark
well I feel like a forgotten man
I feel like a forgotten man

Well I feel like a four letter word I know what few can do how angry words can pierce the heart how a soul can sink so low
I feel like a forgotten man yes
I feel like a forgotten man

Well I feel like I'm forever damned since our love is gone no lust, no rage, no wicked thoughts just pain, that lingers on
I feel like a forgotten man
I feel like a forgotten man yes
I feel like a forgotten man
