

Bicycle Lane

Tom Rosenthal

Look at every single eye
They will all give you a clue
You are longer than the road
And you will be home so soon
Can you see the colours change?
Are they blurring into shapes?
One of you had a thought
It's time to make the great escape

There's no sign of cars
You're in the bicycle lane
There's no sign of cars
You're in the bicycle lane
There's no sign of cars
You're in the bicycle lane
There's no sign of cars
You're in the bicycle lane
