

Pingu in the Igloo

Tom Rosenthal

You looked liked Pingu in the Igloo Your nose was cold , you showed me the icicle, that you found, hanging from the roof

I remember your entrance to the room i was in and the half pint glass you were holding, that made you look bigger tha n you were

You drew a charming stick man on my left hand and you told me n ot to wash it off.
we loved you, we loved you.
