

Take Your Guess

Tom Rosenthal

I didn't walk how you said I should walk
I walk how I do walk and that's fine
It didn't go how you said it would go
It went how it did go and that's fine

I look out the window someday
I see a million ways and that's fine
I didn't dance how I wanted to dance
I did a bit of prance and that's fine

Take your guess, spurious at best
Can't you see it's all just chaos

I breathe in and then I breathe out
I've got a trillion doubts and that's fine
I took a road that wasn't the road but it was something I chose and that's fine

Take your guess, spurious at best
Can't you see it's all just chaos
Take your guess, spurious at best
Can't you see it's all just chaos

It didn't go how you said it would go
It went how it did go and that's fine

Take your guess, spurious at best
Can't you see it's all just chaos
