

Adore

Tom Speight

The way you look tonight
It's something I can't describe
And the way you say my name
Makes me feel just right

And at first I thought it was my imagination
Too good to be true
When I saw you in my reflection
Oh honey, it's you, it's you

I adore you, adore you, adore you
Like no other
I'll adore you, adore you, adore you
Forever

And the way you show me love
When everyone is out
And the way you fill my heart
Makes me want to sing out loud

And at last I'm not looking for salvation
'Cause I found it here
When I saw you in my reflection
Oh honey, it's you, it's clear

I adore you, adore you, adore you
Like no other
I'll adore you, adore you, adore you
Forever

I adore you, adore you, adore you
Like no other
I adore you, adore you, adore you
Forever

Forever
Forever
Forever
