

Honey

Tom Speight

Ever since you said goodbye
Taking off on your flight
You've been on my mind
Finding your fingerprints
Tripping over everything
You've been on my mind

And I can't keep thinking
Running from the truth
And I can't keep smiling for you

I don't wanna mess around no more
I don't want you screaming at my door
I don't wanna love you now
I don't wanna hit the ground
And I won't back down
Honey, it's over now
Honey, it's over now

Ever since I cut the line
Never drunk so much wine
Spinning out of my mind
Falling in and out of bars
Hooking up with aimless hearts
Spinning out of time

And I can't keep thinking
Running from the truth
And I can't keep smiling for you

I don't wanna mess around no more
I don't want you screaming at my door
I don't wanna love you now
I don't wanna hit the ground
And I won't back down
Honey, it's over now
Honey, it's over now

And I can't keep thinking
Running from the truth
And I can't keep smiling for you

I don't wanna mess around no more
I don't want you screaming at my door
I don't wanna love you now
I don't wanna hit the ground
And I won't back down
Honey, it's over now
Honey, it's over now
