

Lay My Eyes

Tom Speight

You've been looking for someone
Chasing nights till it's gone
The fear of feeling loneliness
Are you scared of moving on?

I have nothing but my word
But I would give you my world
Maybe I'm just dazed and confused
Let me lay my eyes on you
Let me lay my eyes on you

And if I ever let you go
There's nothing that I can do
Let me lay my eyes on you

I've been looking for someone
Trying find where I belong
The fear of feeling happiness
Tell me what I'm waiting on

You have everything I need
Say the words and I'll lead
Baby I've been cold and used
Let me lay my eyes on you
Let me lay my eyes on you

And if I ever let you go
There's nothing that I can do
Let me lay my eyes on you

And if I ever let you go
There's nothing that I can do
Let me lay my eyes on you

Just let me lay my eyes on you
