

Soak Up

Tom Speight

I soak up your love
Like it's the last thing I ever do
Then give it all back to you

I've been talking to myself
Searching for some help with these scars
So tired, walking in the dark
Tryna get to where you are
Where you are, where you are

I soak up your love
Like it's the last thing I ever do
Then give it all back to you
I soak up your love
When you're lost for words and need the truth
Then give it all back to you

Good things come to those who wait
But the wait might tear us apart
'Cause lately I've been chasing a dream
Trying to get myself where you are
Where you are, where you are

I soak up your love
Like it's the last thing I ever do
Then give it all back to you
I soak up your love
When you're lost for words and need the truth
Then give it all back to you

I soak up your love
I soak up your love

I soak up your love
Like it's the last thing I ever do
Then give it all back to you
I soak up your love
When you're lost for words and need the truth
Then give it all back to you

I soak up your love
I soak up your love
I soak up your love
I soak up your love
