

Tomorrow

Tom Speight

Grab the keys and go
Take me somewhere I don't know
Where the night sky softly glows
After all these years
You still shine when I disappear
You're the only thing I need
The world can wait for you and me

No one knows
What tomorrow holds
I only hope
Forever let's us grow
I keep dreaming
For what tomorrow holds

Throw me like a stone
River wide we're on our own
You're the only thing I need
The world can wait for you and me

No one knows
What tomorrow holds
I only hope
Forever let's us grow
I keep dreaming
For what tomorrow holds
I keep dreaming
For what tomorrow holds

I keep dreaming
For what tomorrow holds
I keep dreaming
For what tomorrow holds
