The man who preached the funeral said it really was a simple way to die

He laid down to rest one afternoon and never opened up his eyes They hired me and Fred and Joe to dig the grave and carry up so me chairs  $\frac{1}{2}$

It took us seven hours and I guess we must have drunk a case of beer

I guess I ought to go and watch them put him down but I don't o wn a suit

And anyway when they start talking about the fire in hell, well , I get spooked

So, I'll just sit here in my truck and act like I don't know hi m when they pass

Anyway, when they're all through I've got to go to work and mow the grass

Well, here they come and who's that ridin' in that big ol' shin y limousine

Look at all that chrome, I do believe that that's the sharpest thing I've seen

That must belong to his great uncle, someone said he owned a big ol' farm

When they get parked I'll mosey down and look it over, that won 't do no harm

Well that must be the widow in the car and would you take a loo k at that

That sure is a pretty dress, you know some women do look good in black

Well, he's not even in the ground and they say that his truck is up for sale

They say she took it pretty hard, but you can't tell too much be ehind the veil

Well, listen ain't that pretty when the bugler plays the military taps

I think that when you's in the war they always had to play a so ng like that

Well here I am and there they go and I guess you'd just call it my bad luck

I hope he rests in peace, the trouble is the fellow owes me for ty bucks
