I guess I should've written, dad, to let you know that I was co ming home

I've been gone so many years, I didn't realize you had a phone I saw your cattle coming in, boy they're looking mighty fat and slick

I saw Fred at the service station, told me that his wife is awf ul sick

You heard my record on the radio, oh, well it's just another so ng

But I've got a hit recorded and it'll be out on the market 'for e too long

I got this ring in Mexico, no, it didn't cost me quite a bunch When you're in the business that I'm in, the people call it put tin' up a front

I know I've lost a little weight, I guess I am looking kind of pale

If you didn't know me better, dad, you'd think that I'd just go tten out of jail

No, we don't ever call them beer joints, night clubs are the pl aces that I work

You meet a lot of people there, but no, there ain't much chance of gettin' hurt

I'm sorry that I couldn't be there with you all when momma pass ed away

I was on the road and when they came and told me it was just to  ${\sf o}$  late

I drove by the grave to see her, boy, that really is a pretty s tone

I'm glad that Fred and Jan are here, it's better than you being here alone

Well I knew you's gonna ask me who the lady is that's sleeping in the car

That's just a girl who works for me and, man, she plays a prett y mean quitar

We worked in San Antone last night, she didn't even have the ti me to dress

She drove me down from Nashville and to tell the truth I guess she needs the rest

Well, dad, I gotta go, we got a dance to work in cartersville to onight

Let me take your number down, I'll call you, and I promise you I'll write

Now you be good and don't be chasin' all those pretty women tha t you know  $\label{eq:constraint} \text{And by the way if you see Barbara walker tell her that I said "hello."}$
