I Wish I Had A Million Friends

Tom T. Hall

I wish I had a million friends and the playground as big as the world I wish I had a million friends some kittens some boys and some qirls I wish I had a million friends some people some puppies and cat S Some chickens some mouse and the bird And maybe I'd like to have a big friendly rat yeah I wish I had a million friends and the sandbox as big as the sc hool I wish I had a million friends and the frog that goes ribbit in the pool I wish I had a million friends I'd like to have all different s orts One for the morning and the noon and the night A monkey and a zebra and a big white horse oh boy I wish I had a million friends who would listen and talk to me too I wish I had a million friends the whole wide world and the who le big Zoo I wish I had a million friends who were thoughtful kind and tru е I wish I had a million friends and I wish they were all like yo u