Trying to Do Better

Tom Vek

I wake up thinking I've had enough
Of lying around all day
Not pushing for any one thing
Just spinning his little place
What I should do is change it up
Defeat my comfort zone
Await for the wrath of human nautre to strike me down

[Chorus]
What I like to think is that it will fall in to my lap
But I'm trying to do better
And you're betting that I'm trying
I'm trying to do better
And I'm dying to try

But I'm no fool I can't kid myself
Still feel like I kid myself
Not learning how to switch off or cut the right light
The bomb I'm trying to diffuse
These old clothes don't fit
These old suits are worn out
These moths have got to the fabric of time

[Chorus]

I know I know I know I will always want more
I know I know I know I will always want more
I know I know it's the things you want
I know I know I know I will always want more
I know I know I know I will always want more
I should be grateful for what I have

And I'm trying to do better
