

Swordfishtrombones

Tom Waits

Am
1. Well he came home from the war

E
with a party in his head

E Am
and modified Brougham DeVille

and a pair of legs that opened up

like butterfly wings

E Am
and a mad dog that wouldn't sit still

Dm Am
He went and took up with a Salvation Army Band girl

who played dirty water on a swordfishtrombone

Dm Am
he went to sleep at the bottom of Tenkiller lake

B E7
and he said "gee, but it's great to be home."

2. Well he came home from the war
with a party in his head and an idea for a fireworks display and he knew that he'd be ready with a stainless steel machete and a half a pint of Ballentine's each day

And he holed up in room above a hardware store cryin' nothing there but Hollywood tears and he put a spell on some poor little Crutchfield girl and stayed like that for 27 years

3. Well he packed up all his expectations he lit out for California with a flyswatter banjo on his knee with a lucky tiger in his angel hair and benzedrine for getting there they found him in a eucalyptus tree

Lieutenant got him a canary bird and shook her head with every word and Chesterfielded moonbeams in a song and he got 20 years for lovin' her from some Oklahoma governor said everything this Doughboy does is wrong

4. Now some say he's doing the obituary mambo and some say he's hanging on the wall perhaps this yarn's the only thing that holds this man together some say he was never here at all

Some say they saw him down in Birmingham, sleeping in a boxcar going by and if you think that you can tell a bigger tale I swear to God you'd have to tell a lie...
