

Castles

Tom Walker

Stumbling around in the darkness
Looking for the place we started
Back to basics, hardly
Life's a little complicated

Give me a beautiful escape
Where no one knows my name
Where I can just let loose
And undo all we lost along the way

Ooh-ooh
We can't understand
Tried to change, we can't
These castles, they're all made of sand
Ooh-ooh
Wasn't what we planned
Tried to change, we can't
These castles, they're all made of sand

Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
'Cause these castles, they're all made of sand
Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
'Cause these castles, they're all made of sand
(These castles, they're all made of sand)
(These castles, they're all made of sand)
(These castles, they're all made of sand)

Lately, I've been heartless
Did I have a word with myself?
Aside of the part where
I remember who I'm supposed to be

Give me a beautiful escape
Where no one knows my name
Where I can just let loose
And undo all we lost along the way

Ooh-ooh
We can't understand
Tried to change, we can't
These castles, they're all made of sand
Ooh-ooh
Wasn't what we planned
Tried to change, we can't
These castles, they're all made of sand

Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
'Cause these castles, they're all made of sand
Knock 'em down
Knock 'em down
'Cause these castles, they're all made of sand
(These castles, they're all made of sand)

(These castles, they're all made of sand)
(These castles, they're all made of sand)

(These castles, they're all made of sand)
