

Echoes

Tom Walker

When I'm down, when I'm out
You make me move back and forth to the sound
When I feel like giving it up, throw in the towel
When life is driving me crazy

I hear that you're with me, you're always my home
A safe space to heal when there's weight on my soul
I feel your presence, I'm never alone
You know wherever I go

I hear you echo
I hear you echo
I feel you right next to me
I hear you echo
I hear you echo
Only you break the silence
I hear you echo through me

You give me love, you give me life
Somehow you push all the pain out of sight
When I feel like I've had enough, you bring me light
You're never calling me crazy
Yeah, you saved me

And I hear that you're with me, you're always my home
A safe space to heal when there's weight on my soul
I feel your presence, I'm never alone
You know wherever I go

I hear you echo
I hear you echo
I feel you right next to me
I hear you echo
I hear you echo
Only you break the silence
I hear you echo through me

Echo, echo
When I need it most
Echo, echo
Yeah, you echo, echo
When I'm calling out
You break the silence
I hear you echo through me

Echo, echo
When I need a home
Echo, echo
Yeah, you echo, echo
When I'm calling out
You break the silence
I hear you echo through me

Echo, echo
Echo, echo
Echo, echo

I hear you echo through me
