

Sun Goes Down

Tom Walker

I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)

These times they aint moving fast enough
Every time I'm looking up
I don't get no answer I don't get no love
Every day I play the game, knowing i won't win again
They say times are changing now

I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so gladwhen the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)

The last thing you ever promised was tomorrow
All the irony convinced a pessimist could see shallow waters
As twice as deep well timed silence twice as powerful
As mindless speech eyes wide shut,
Fortnight sleep that be twice as weak
But like a mortal man leaving troubles in other mortal hands,
I, buried my mistakes mistaking hope should maybe understand
I've never had the answers fuck I barely had a mattress
Paranoia, common practice
Promised the rest when i meet my casket
Throw my ashes to the atlas
Let them travel round its axis use my soul to pay my taxes
Make my music off my sadness
Oh I'll be so glad so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)

Well I'llbe so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Will you meet me there this time around?
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Will you meet me there this time around?
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)

(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
Well I'll be so glad when the sun goes down
(When the sun goes down)
