

Boyfriends, what are boyfriends, what are boyfriends when I have you?

Time rolls by so quickly when I'm standing next to you
And every day is pretty when I wake up turned towards you
But when you go, you take the sun and all my flowers die
So I wait by the window and write some shit and hope that you'll reply

I watch myself undress and I pretend that it's for you
Talking to myself and hoping that I'll turn around and see you
And if I take a pill tonight, I'll sleep just fine, but that's not what I want to do
And my eyes never cry, but they run dry when I think of you

Remember when I kept so still when you came in for the kill
The very first time I was looking in your eyes
And we never should've left that room
And we never should've said hello
'Cause I miss you when you go
I mean I don't mind sinning if it's with you
I don't mind sinning if it's with you

Say a prayer (say a prayer)
Lay your hands on me
I just wanna be clean
I just wanna be clean

Say a prayer (say a prayer)
Lay your hands on me
I just wanna be clean
I just wanna be clean

Say a prayer (say a prayer)
Lay your hands on me
I just wanna be clean
I just wanna be clean

Say a prayer (say a prayer)
Lay your hands on me
I just wanna be clean
I just wanna be clean

Say a prayer (say a prayer)
Lay your hands on me
I just wanna be clean
I just wanna be clean
