

stoned

Tomberlin

After the party, I walked home alone, alone
Talked to God like I believe Him, but I don't Felt so lonely, made me want to sink, not float
I crushed the feeling with a smoke
So stoned
So stoned

I thought of you and what you chose
It made me cry
Couldn't get my breathing right
All night
All night

I still remember every word you spoke to me
You paid for lies to be made truth
Does that fuck with you?
I have forgiveness in my heart
You knew
You knew

After the party I walked home
Alone
