

Comeback

Tommee Profitt

New face
Tell me who dis
It's the
Same swag witta new twist
Issa
Game plan witta remix
Ain't nothin new that you got that can really do this
I'm on a level that many try to impersonate
But fallin short like a dropout that's tryna graduate
No competition cause constantly makem compensate
The new addition the line up it only elevates

Gone for a minute but I'm back where you at
Here to take the throne
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

They try to copy but honestly it was doomed from the start
Kinda impossible probably they just trying too hard
It's not hustle that kills'em it's just they playing a part
How could you walk in my shoes when all of you lacking the heart

Gone for a minute but I'm back where you at
Here to take the throne
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

The futures here
Ready for the comeback

I am the future that's coming back
I see what's next others just react
The king on the throne keep it all intact
This world is mine I won't give it back
And they need me to win
They need me to show them that anything really is possible
So where to begin
If you knew what I knew then me out the game is not optional
Its not optional

Cause me out the game is not optional
Cause me out the game is not optional
Cause me out the game is not optional
