

Yeah, victory all in my entity
You cannot stop the divinity
Yeah, limit me never
That I built a kingdom to rain on my enemies
Yeah, embedded in my identity
Presidential like a Kennedy
Yeah, I am the purest epitome of what it takes to rage infinity
I am a nuisance, I really do this, I'm never losing yo
Strength of a giant, I'm a Goliath, hell I'm Medusa yo
Run an empire, walk through the fire, blaze and watch me ignite

Label me sire

Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Walk right through the fire, let the flames take me higher
Rise from the ashes to a place of a sire
Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Crown on the head of a king is required
Die for the mission while we live to inspire
Welcome to my empire

Yeah, look in my face and then tell me
That I'm not the ill-est, I really be killing it
Shoot like a 357
I step on the scene and they really be feeling it
Think I was born for this
The heavy commodity, handle it properly
They said it be only for royalty
I tell the others to get off the property
I am the prodigy
I put the work on the table and feel my monopoly
Grin is inside of me
Aim for the target then bang!
You tell me who's stopping me
You cannot take this here out of me
If it's the best then it gotta be
Me

Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Walk right through the fire, let the flames take me higher
Rise from the ashes to a place of a sire
Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Crown on the head of a king is required
Die for the mission while we live to inspire

Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire
Welcome to my empire

Welcome to my...
