Tommee Profitt

Woke up this morning
(Yeah) feeling reborn and...
It's like a new dawning
The misery's off
The energy's on and...
I'm feeling stronger
Yeah, somethings evolving
If I'm being honest I would've bet on it, I was a goner

Cause Lately too often
I open my eyes and my mood will just darken
Laying in bed like a coffin, letting the negative thoughts win

But I woke up this morning
Feeling anointed, I'm feeling chosen
This is the moment
I land on my feet and I'm ready to own it

Yesterday was heavier than semi trucks
Couldn't find a better way to win my luck
Yesterday was darker than a midnight storm
Feeling like I'm paralyzed when I'm stuck

Yesterday was living in an all out war
Climbing up a mountain made of all my fears
Yesterday was battling to break me down
But yesterday's gone, and I'm still here

This is the hour
I Rise to my feet and I stand in my power
My energy, boundless
Astounding the doubters who counted my out it

Thought I was defeated
Had faith in myself when I needed believers

I'mma fight to level up
Long as I'm breathing

Bet I leave a Legendary name when I leave it

Feel alive and revived
I'm on the rise

Yeah the devil lied
Saying I died, I survived

When I been denied
It provide fire for the drive

Better bet a prize
When the pressure rise, imma thrive

When a winner strive
They be tryin' rob me top me

I am a phenomenal anomoly, got me

Better run and get a hundred armies, copy
Nothing can stop me
I'm feeling godly

I'm Feeling godly
I'm Feeling godly
I can't explain it
Feeling like something inside me
Like Nothing can stop me

I am
All I need
Breaking through
Breaking free

I'm the keeper
I'm the Kingdom
All the power
That's in me

Master matter with my mind
Moving Mountains from my path
Part the oceans when I walk
See the future in my past

I'm ignited, I'm enlightened
Lost my fears and found me
Felt connections, Held the heavens
I was blind and now I see

I'm feeling infinite, I feel invincible
I surpassed my potential
Ain't no resisting it, only surrendering
Turn my trials into Temples

Out from disparity into the clarity
Elevating at a Mach speed
I see so ending becoming unlimited
Good luck trying to stop me
(You'll never stop me)

I'm feeling godly

I'm Feeling godly
I'm Feeling godly
I can't explain it

I'm Feeling godly
I'm Feeling godly
I'm Feeling godly
I'm Feeling godly
