We are Legends
We are Legends
We are Legends

I'm the one, I'm the one
I don't care what they say yeah
You got two or three seconds to step out the way yeah
To the left to the right got my team we don't play yeah
And we ready to die do whatever it takes yeah

I'm the one, I'm the one
I don't care what they say yeah
You got two or three seconds to step out the way yeah
To the left to the right got my team we don't play yeah
And we ready to die do whatever it takes

Oh we gonna rule the world
I'll never run away anymore, anymore
I never run away anymore

Oh we gonna rule the world
I'll never run away anymore, anymore
I never run away anymore

It's about that time that I get mine no it can't wait, yeah
And it's bad news cause your whole crew let me out of my cage
This is just my state of mind, never gonna run in place, aye
You know Imma still fight till my last breath blood on my face, yeah

When I'm down on bended knee, and my lungs can barely breathe
Everybody starts to lose their belief, oh
But how can I be above those came before me they say I'm not good enough
I can be better than them if I really want
I can take over the world if I really want
No one's gonna get in my way

Oh we gonna rule the world
I'll never run away anymore, anymore
I never run away anymore

Oh
(I'm the one I'm the one I don't care what they say)
We gonna rule the world
(You got two or three seconds to step out the way)
I'll never run away anymore, anymore
I never run away anymore

I'm the one, I'm the one
I don't care what they say yeah
You got two or three seconds to step out the way yeah
To the left to the right got my team we don't play, team we don't play, team we don't play
And we ready to die do whatever it takes

We are Legends
We are Legends
