

Tomorrow We Fight

Tommee Profitt

Deep in the forest under the fog
Armies surround us, waiting for dark
Wearing their iron masks like a shield
I know they're coming I know they're here

Oh that light, oh, is bright
Sleep for today, but tomorrow we fight

Tomorrow we fight
Tomorrow we fight

Cold in the violence
After the war
Hope is a fire to keep us warm
Children of anger
Eden's forgot
Waiting for the hour
The battle is done

Oh that light, oh, is bright
Sleep for today, but tomorrow we fight

Tomorrow we fight
Tomorrow we fight

Wait for the war
Wait for the war

Tomorrow we fight
Tomorrow we fight
Tomorrow we fight
Tomorrow we fight
