Tommy Genesis

Yes I said that shit before you said it (Aha)
I have all your thoughts before get em (Ba Bah)
I know how this ends, paramedic (Mhm)
I can see the future

Down to my roots down to the blood
Down to the skies in hell
Up to my thighs look at my eyes
Chakra show and tell
I am not your average rapper
No puppet on the string for the paper
Coke and lemonade in the shade can you please
Take me to the place I can play on my knees
I've been in the dark swamp waters
You've been in the jet plane saucer

Yes I said that shit before you said it (Aha)
I have all your thoughts before get em (Ba Bah)
I know how this ends, paramedic (Mhm)
I can see the future

I know I know if you the one (if you the one)
Before you know that you the one (if you the one)
I won't end it here and now, bitches bow down
Let's get rich have a kid and drive it around
Bitch!
I could be the stitches you the bandage give a kiss!
I could be the pharaoh in the kingdom with the sphinx
Tell me that I'm tripping but I'm sitting on the glitch
I'ma bring the people to the steeple say a speech
Love is a commitment but we already in deep
Can you touch the bottom is you bottom or a peak
Sodom and Gomorrah why they name me after horror
(Ah)
Bitches bow down

Yes I said that shit before you said it (Aha)
I have all your thoughts before get em (Ba Bah)
I know how this ends, paramedic (Mhm)
I can see the future

Down to my roots down to the blood
Down to the skies in hell
