

It's Christmas Again

Tommy James

While everyone's dreamin' sweet Christmas dreams,
Part of me's comin' apart at the seams.

Seems like just the other day:
You and me and mistletoe;
Makin' angels in the snow.
Never thought I could feel that way.
What a magic thing to find:
You're in love at Christmas time.

We fell in love over there.
Street light made the snow glisten in your hair.
I saw forever when I looked in your eyes.
I never thought about saying goodbye.

We had love, turn around, and we lost it.
You were gone like a flame in the wind.
They say time gonna make it better.
But just about the time I think I'm over you, ooh-ooh-ooh;
It's Christmas again.

All alone in a crowded place:
Watchin all the lights that shine;
Suddenly you're on my mind.
Just for a moment, I see your face
Softly looking back at me
Just the way you used to be.

I know you're feelin' it, too.
I know wherever you are that you do.
When you hear laughter and bells are ringin',
I think I know what you're thinkin'.

We had love, turn around, and we lost it.
You were gone like a flame in the wind.
They say time gonna make it better.
But just about the time I think I'm over you, ooh-ooh-ooh;
It's Christmas again.

Lovin' you, love; it's Christmas; still in love.
Lovin' you, love; it's Christmas; still in love; it's Christmas
again. [repeat ad lib]
