

The Magician

Tommy James

If I could borrow one more tomorrow,
What a magician I'd be.
And if I were faster than the questions I'd answer,
Oh, what a world this would be.
And if I had the key to unchain my brother,
I'd set him free to unchain another.
If I could borrow one more tomorrow,
What a magician I'd be.

If I had the power of only an hour,
What a magician I'd be.
I'd do my shoutin' from the top of the mountain
For all men to look up and see.
We ain't gonna make it a-standin' in line;
If love is the reason, then love is the rhyme.
I believe in the magic. I've only to catch it.
What a magician I'd be; yeah, yeah, yeah,
What a magician I'd be.
