

How could you come and go relentlessly?
Are you a stranger to your body
Starboy, you're stuck with the rest of us
Come test your luck

Does it make you feel slick
When I can't a hold of you honey?
That's sick
That you don't really need anybody
How's it
Being
Golden?
How'd you get so?
How'd you get so?

You get the money and get off scot-free
You bait the moment then you turn to leave
You've got that born in America
Quick tongue to talk like you wrote the plot
Tell me I should try
Learn how to rage before I die

Does that make you feel slick
When they can't get a hold of you honey?
That's sick
That you don't really need anybody
How's it
You shouldn't wait for him
Being
You shouldn't wait for him
Golden?
How'd you get so?

How'd you get so?
How'd you get so?

You shouldn't wait for him
You shouldn't wait for him
You shouldn't wait for him
You shouldn't wait for him

How'd you get so?
How'd you get so?
