

Fly Again

Tommy Page

Haunted by the words you said
We were holding on by a thread
Every time I tried to let go
Something inside me always said no
This can't go on it seems so senseless
With you I always felt so defenseless
Find someone else's heart to steal
Cause now the time has come to be real

I'm gonna hold my head up high
These broken wings will fly again
Learn to stand tall again all on my own
I'm gonna keep my strength inside
And soon I'm gonna fly again
I'll never cry again cause I'm coming home
When I fly again

My time has come I'll share what I have
With those I love cause time moves so fast
Shake off my past of running blind
The pain I've lost is the love I'll find

I'm gonna hold my head up high
These broken wings will fly again
Learn to stand tall again all on my own
I'm gonna keep my strength inside
And soon I'm gonna fly again
I'll never cry again cause I'm coming home

I want to feel it again
I will go inside my heart and I will fly

I'm gonna hold my head up high
These broken wings will fly again
Learn to stand tall again all on my own
(All on my own)
I'm gonna keep my strength inside
And soon I'm gonna fly again
I'll never cry again (cry again) cause I'm coming home
I'm coming home
I'm gonna hold my head up high
These broken wings will fly again
Learn to stand tall again (I'm gonna fly) all on my own
(All on my own)
I'm gonna keep my strength inside
And soon I'm gonna fly again (fly again)
I'll never cry again cause I'm coming home

I'm gonna hold my head up high
These broken wings will fly again
Learn to stand tall again (tall again)
All on my own (all on my own)
I'm gonna keep my strength inside
And soon I'm gonna fly again
I'll never cry again cause I'm coming home
(I'm coming home)
I'm gonna hold my head up high
